A DEFACTOR from Flemingsburg says: A few days agotwo strangers came to the looss of Thomas J. Graham, near here, and represented that they wished to buy his farm. He priced it at $2,500. They left, but on Thursials they returned and said they would take it, and offered in payment three $1,000 bills. Graham didnot have $500 in change and came to this place and got the money. On his return he was met by the parties and a third party, and upon producing the money they collared him, robbed him and struck out, leaving Graham terrified by threats. They came from Maysville, as the horse they drove was recognized as a Mayaville livery animal.
